

weekend TICKER

What's happening this weekend in Traverse City

Friday, May 18

8:30 am - 6:00 pm

Free nutritional health coaching session at Heart Lock Health in Traverse City. Holistic approach toward achieving optimal weight, reducing food cravings, healing digestion, maximizing energy. 231.492.0434.

9:00 am - 2:00 pm

TEACH Homeschool Odyssey of the Mind team holding a garage sale fundraiser for the World Finals competition in Iowa. Sale held at 2795 Ridge Trail Drive in Traverse City. All proceeds go to team expenses.

10:00 am - 6:00 pm

Lego Exhibit at the History Center of Traverse City (322 Sixth St). 995.0313.

12:00 pm - 12:00 am

American Craft Brew Week at 7 Monks Taproom in downtown Traverse City. Each day 3-4 limited release craft beers from a different brewery. Friday: Dark Horse Brewing.

5:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Soulkast plays Union Street Station in downtown Traverse City.

5:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Dennos Museum's 4th annual Small Works art sale in Traverse City. The goal of the sale is to provide artists with additional sales opportunities and encourage patrons to buy original art at an affordable price.

5:30 pm - 7:30 pm

Traverse City galleries Cog's Creek and Seed Studio host a one-mile art hike – celebrating the opening of two new exhibits. Cog's Creek is located at 124 N. Maple and is opening "Tied Up: Contemporary Fiber, Contemporary Form." Seed Studio is located at 417 S. Union and opens "Wake: Water and What You Make of It." More info, call Cog's Creek at 231.620.0458.

5:30 pm - 7:00 pm

Salone de Capelli hosts Pour On the Porch featuring the wineries of the Traverse City Wine & Art Festival. Located on the porch of The Mercato at The Village at GT Commons. Win festival tickets, salon gift certificate.

5:30 pm - 6:30 pm

Join GT Regional Land Conservancy executive director Glen Chown for a hike at Maple Bay Farm on U.S. 31 south of Elk Rapids. This hike is open to the public and a featured event of Green Elk Rapids Days. RSVP appreciated by calling 929.7911.

6:30 pm

9th Annual Empire Asparagus Festival. Events kick-off Friday evening and run through the weekend and include a 5K Fun Run, parade, asparagus-inspired food and beverages, live music and more!

6:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Celebrate Service! concert on the Piazza at The Village at Grand Traverse Commons. Live music by Steppin' In It. Celebrate the service of AmeriCorps members and peruse the Volunteer Fair. Tickets $10 adv/$12 door, available at Mana, High Five Threads, LFC, Higher Grounds and Pleasanton.

7:00 pm

15th Annual Rendezvous at the Jazz Club series presented by Traverse City Central High School choirs. Jazz, pop and rock arrangements for concert-goers of all ages. $15 adults, $10 students. Box office (12-6 p.m.) 933.3573.

8:00 pm

Lake Leelanau Walleye Fest kicks off with a fish dinner. Weekend activities include a fishing tourney, parade and Silly Hat Dance.

8:00 pm

The Tavern, Old Town Playhouse's last mainstage production of the 2011/2012 season, in Traverse City. Production runs through May 19. 947.2210.

CONT'D ON BACK

For more information about what's happening in Traverse City, scan this code or visit theTicker.tc

Saturday, May 19

8:30 am

ABC Challenge Walk, A 10-mile walk around Shanty Creek Resort's property in Bellaire. Proceeds benefit Antrim County High Tea for Breast Cancer Prevention. Visit www.antrimcountyhightea.org for more information and to register.

9:00 am - 2:00 pm

TEACH Homeschool Odyssey of the Mind team holding a garage sale fundraiser for the World Finals competition in Iowa. Sale held at 2795 Ridge Trail Drive in Traverse City. All proceeds go to team expenses.

10:00 am - 6:00 pm

Lego Exhibit at the History Center of Traverse City (322 Sixth St). 995.0313.

10:00 am

9th Annual Empire Asparagus Festival. Events kick-off Friday evening and run through the weekend and include a 5K Fun Run, parade, asparagus-inspired food and beverages, live music and more!

10:00 am - 5:00 pm

Dennos Museum's 4th annual Small Works art sale in Traverse City. The goal of the sale is to provide artists with additional sales opportunities and encourage patrons to buy original art at an affordable price.

10:00 am - 7:00 pm

Books 'n Bags Sale hosted by the American Association of University Women at the History Center in Traverse City. Proceeds provide scholarships for local women, Friday Night Live art/books and books for local schools and libraries.

11:00 am - 5:00 pm

Blossom Days on the Old Mission Peninsula. Winemakers offering samples of unreleased, barrel and reserve wines in addition to each winery's standard tasting list. $30 ticket includes a souvenir glass and tasting at each of the seven Old Mission wineries. More info, 223.4110.

11:00 am - 9:00 pm

Historic farmstay Hillside Homestead (3400 Setterbo) in Suttons Bay hosts an open house. See what's cooking on the wood stove, play a record on the phonograph, discover farmhouse life from 100 years ago. Free and family friendly. More info, susan@hillsidehomestead.com, 271.1131.

12:00 pm - 12:00 am

American Craft Brew Week at 7 Monks Taproom in downtown Traverse City. Each day 3-4 limited release craft beers from a different brewery. Saturday: Short's Brewing.

4:00 pm

The TCTweed Ride meets at the Open Space for a social and short bicycle tour of Traverse City's downtown neighborhoods in vintage style.

7:00 pm

15th Annual Rendezvous at the Jazz Club series presented by Traverse City Central High School choirs. Jazz, pop and rock arrangements for concert-goers of all ages. $15 adults, $10 students. Box office (12-6 p.m.) 933.3573.

7:30 pm

Christian contemporary singer/songwriter Fernando Ortega concert at Bay Pointe Community Church in Traverse City. Benefits Freedom Builders and Traverse Bay Christian School. $15 general admission, $25 (includes meet & greet before show). 946.1400.

8:00 pm

Lake Leelanau Walleye Fest kicks off with a fish dinner. Weekend activities include a fishing tourney, parade and Silly Hat Dance.

8:00 pm

Encore Winds presents "Lights! Camera! Music?" featuring music from Harry Potter, Star Wars, The Lord of the Rings and other Hollywood hits. At the Milliken Auditorium in Traverse City. $15 adult, $10 senior, $5 student/child. 995.1553.

8:00 pm

The Tavern, Old Town Playhouse's last mainstage production of the 2011/2012 season, in Traverse City. Production runs through May 19. 947.2210.

Sunday, May 20

12:00 am - 5:00 pm

Blossom Days on the Old Mission Peninsula. Winemakers offering samples of unreleased, barrel and reserve wines in addition to each winery's standard tasting list. $30 ticket includes a souvenir glass and tasting at each of the seven Old Mission wineries. More info, 223.4110.

8:00 am - 12:00 pm

9th Annual Empire Asparagus Festival. Events kick-off Friday evening and run through the weekend and include a 5K Fun Run, parade, asparagus-inspired food and beverages, live music and more!

11:00 am - 4:00 pm

Dennos Museum's 4th annual Small Works art sale in Traverse City. The goal of the sale is to provide artists with additional sales opportunities and encourage patrons to buy original art at an affordable price.

11:00 am - 5:00 pm

NMC BBQ in Traverse City. $6 in advance, $8 at the door. Free admission to the Dennos Museum, live entertainment, student pottery sale, cake walk, greenhouse plant sale, Orchid Society display and more!

12:00 pm - 12:00 am

American Craft Brew Week at 7 Monks Taproom in downtown Traverse City. Each day 3-4 limited release craft beers from a different brewery. Sunday: Odd Side Ales.

1:30 pm

1st Annual Young Playwrights Festival at the City Opera House in downtown Traverse City. Free, public performance.

3:00 pm

Old Time Gospel Music Jamboree at Central United Methodist Church (222 Cass) in Traverse City. Featuring: Cherry Blossom Ramblers, Jim Hawley, Barbara Faith Jordan, Rev. Marv Rosa, and One Accord Gospel Quartet. A benefit for Love INC of Grand Traverse and the Rev. Marshall & Mary Collins medical assistance fund. $10 donation.

For more information about what's happening in Traverse City, scan this code or visit theTicker.tc